

External Participants Monitoring and Review Policy

Policy Statement

Our organization does not monitor external participants. Instead, we provide them with a favourable review rather than a formal ethical approval. This policy ensures that external participants are treated equitably and fairly while maintaining the integrity and ethical standards of our organization.

Scope

This policy applies to all external participants who engage with our organization, including but not limited to collaborators, contractors, and third-party entities.

Policy Details

Monitoring of External Participants

Our organization does not engage in the active monitoring of external participants. We trust that these individuals and entities will adhere to the necessary ethical guidelines and standards as required for their specific activities and engagements.

Favourable Review

External participants will be provided with a favourable review based on their proposal and engagement with our organization. This review is intended to support and endorse their activities without the formal process of ethical approval.

Indemnity Insurance

All external participants are required to have appropriate indemnity insurance in place. This insurance is necessary to protect against any liabilities or risks that may arise during their engagement with our organization.

Responsibilities

It is the responsibility of external participants to:

- Ensure they have appropriate indemnity insurance coverage.

- Adhere to ethical guidelines and standards relevant to their activities and engagements.

It is the responsibility of our organization to:

- Provide a favourable review to external participants as needed.
- Maintain transparency and fairness in all interactions with external participants.

Review and Amendments

This policy will be reviewed annually and amended as necessary to ensure continued relevance and alignment with organizational standards and ethical guidelines.
